REPUTABLE TRADING SYSTEM NOW AVAILABLE ONLINE

Seasoned trading veterans accepting new members at www.MyTradingSystem.net

NEW YORK – March 31, 2006 – Stock trading is continually increasing in popularity. Yet it can be challenging for even the experienced trader to realize great profits in the marketplace without following an established trading system. Investors can now access an affirmed trend-following trading system through MyTradingSystem.net, a New York based Web site.

“MyTradingSystem.net offers a simple, yet powerful trading system that has been perfected through over 30 years of experience and has produced real-life tested strategies that maximize profits,” said John S., one of the founders of MyTradingSystem.net.

The trading system utilized through MyTradingSystem.net has succeeded in the past, excels today and will continue to achieve into the future. MyTradingSystem.net is established on sound, adaptable money management principles that take advantage of marketplace trends to yield maximum profit. This trading system essentially shows investors a better way to choose stocks and execute valuable entry and exit points.

MyTradingSystem.net has many advantages, including a proven success rate with an average compounded gain of more than 100% every year. The trading system will increase traders' efficiency and confidence, and mostly importantly, will increase profits.

- Reliable principles – MyTradingSystem.net offers traders a developed trading system that provides consistent, easy-to-follow strategies. Using this established trading system reduces investor inefficiencies that often hinder trading profits.
- Pre-developed, successful trading system – Developing a trading system demands a solid understanding of technical analysis that many traders have neither the time nor resources to develop on their own. At MyTradingSystem.net, users have the benefits of an established trend-following trading system without the hassle or additional expenses associated with the steep learning curve of other schemes. In addition to technical analysis, MyTradingSystem.net also incorporates economics and news analysis that can have an important impact in the marketplace.
- Unique approach – Most trading system Web sites merely give users selected stock picks without information of how to enter or exit stocks or how to manage risks. MyTradingSystem.net offers a complete, effective solution that is simple to understand and follow. Users receive objective signals and comprehensive explanations of exactly what they need to know, as well as the tools to become successful in the stock trading business. MyTradingSystem.net is more than an automated system. It also incorporates the invaluable expertise of professionals in evaluating all trade decisions that is backed by over 30 years of real trading experience.

- Saves time – MyTradingSystem.net has an effective trading system that minimizes risks, delivers optimal results, and saves traders from spending hours searching and analyzing the stock market. This trading system ensures novice traders will pull the right trigger at the right time and offers an objective and static trading system that allows even experienced traders to improve their own investment strategies and money management rules.
- Continual assistance – Rather than a one-time trading system purchase that leaves investors to blunder on their own, MyTradingSystem.net offers continual, interactive, and easy-to-implement methods from seasoned trading veterans. For a small monthly membership fee, investors can rely on a verified trading system and trade with confidence. Additionally, MyTradingSystem.net offers a free, 30-day trial to let users test the trading system in real time and see results for themselves.

About MyTradingSystem.net

MyTradingSystem.net integrates a tried and proven trading system for traders of all skill levels. The site connects investors to a network of trading professionals that developed the system over ten years ago based on numerous years of research and real-life trading experiences. Once established, the trading system has never produced a losing year. MyTradingSystem.net plans to accept only a limited number of members as to minimize the adverse effect of many people buying the same stocks.
